75th Annapolis Valley Apple Blossom Festival
Small Communities - Big Dreams

(Kentville) – The theme of the 75th Annapolis Valley Apple Blossom Festival was made official last night by the Festival’s Board of Directors.

The Apple Blossom Festival’s diamond anniversary will be celebrated with the theme “Small Communities - Big Dreams”

“The Festival is eager to highlight the aspirations and accomplishments of our small Valley communities during the 75th Apple Blossom Festival,” said Sally Swanburg Wallace, Festival President. “Our Festival began with a small group of citizens seeking to showcase the beauty and prosperity of the Annapolis Valley. It is very appropriate that we recognize the dreams of our Festival founders, along with all our Valley communities during this very special anniversary.”

Celebrations for the 75th Apple Blossom Festival will take place from Digby to Windsor, May 30th to June 4th, 2007. One of the many highlights of the 75th Apple Blossom will be a Queen Annapolisa reunion.

The Apple Blossom Festival Office, at 217 Belcher Street, Kentville is open January to June 30 of each year, 8:30 am - 4:30 pm.

The Annapolis Valley Apple Blossom Festival is a springtime celebration of our traditions and agricultural heritage. The aim is to promote the best family event for all Valley communities and visitors making it the leading festival in Atlantic Canada.
